

Give your people an AI skill they can use tomorrow.

Host Hire Your First AI Employee, a hands-on workshop with Albert Yang, Business Optimization Strategist, Intense Results LLC.

$2,000

Same fee at any headcount.

A USEFUL RESULT, ON THEIR OWN LAPTOP

Participants practice delegating a bounded assignment, checking the evidence, and reusing the workflow. Examples cover inbox discovery, follow-ups, property marketing drafts, and a morning briefing. Fictional data makes practice straightforward.

You bring the room.

Choose the date, venue, invitation policy and seat price. Arrange Wi-Fi, screen/projector, seating, power, registration, attendee payments and event communication.

Albert brings the workshop.

Teaching, core demonstrations, fictional practice files and reusable take-home prompts. No speaker-imposed headcount cap; safe venue capacity and practical classroom support apply.

Fill the room. Get great value.

At 60 attendees, $34 each raises $2,040: the $2,000 speaker fee plus $40 before other costs. Other group sizes, sponsorships and costs change the actual seat price.

Scope: any AI subscription or usage charge is separate and paid directly to the vendor. Travel outside the agreed local area and custom development are quoted separately. Individual setup, CRM repair, custom integration and ongoing support are outside this workshop.

Booking terms for discussion: proposed 50% deposit and balance before the event, subject to written approval. Product access, compatibility and current costs require verification before event promotion.
